PRODUCTION UPDATES

- YouTube - Instructors have begun to upload videos of class choreography (link here). This is a great tool for your dancers to practice at home so please help encourage them to do so.
- Rehearsal Schedules - We are working hard to get these completed and into your calendars. These will be added to our Production Page later this month.
- Costumes - Production costume fees have now been posted to your portals and will be processed with your primary card on file on Monday, March 17th. For families with multiple children/multiple dances, if you have already requested a payment plan, you can expect we will pull payments according to the agreed upon plan. If you have not previously requested a payment plan, we will need to hear from you prior to March 17th by emailing dco.production@gmail.com. Costume distribution will take place during regular class towards the end of May.
- Ticket Sales - Ticket sales will begin on Friday, April 25th and will be available for purchase directly through the Poway Center for Performing Arts. More details coming soon and can be viewed on our Production Page.
- Picture Day - Picture day for Production dancers is scheduled for Sunday, June 8th at Dance & Company. More details will be available soon and can be viewed on our Production Page.
- Volunteers - We could not make this show happen without all of our wonderful parent volunteers! If you would like to volunteer during our Production Week (week of June 23rd) please send an email to dco.production@gmail.com and let us know what your availability might be. We will be looking for volunteers for Tech, In-studio Run Throughs and Production Day itself.
